

I relish my privacy. When the "Do Not Call" list became available I was anxious to put my name on the list. The results have been gratifying. Please do not alter or weaken this act.